

APPLICATION TO THINK GLOBAL SCHOOL

The TGS Vision is

... to develop outstanding globally-committed citizens who make a profound contribution to global unity, social justice, and ecological sustainability.

TGS believes that the future of education is agility, mobility, and an expansive world view. TGS will lead the way, starting in Stockholm, Sweden in September 2010. TGS students will become evolving thought leaders in their home and international communities. TGS is looking for these students, hand-picked from all parts of the world:

Academic merits required:

The student should have strong skills in English and be doing good work at their current school. They need to be capable scholars, but not necessarily at the top of their class.

Other student qualifications:

- Insatiable curiosity
- Dedication to global and world issues
- A strong desire to make an everlasting contribution to society
- Creative problem solvers
- The ability to pause for thoughts
- Appreciation and respect for different perspectives
- A sense of duty to protect our planet
- The ability to think critically and to challenge existing assumptions in the world
- A commitment to strive for personal and collective excellence in every facet of life
- A strong desire to understand how different cultures view and understand life and the way social structures work
- The courage and willingness to take risks

How do you apply?

TGS only accepts online applications at www.thinkglobalschool.com

What is the application process?

In the online applications, students will have the opportunities, through answering a set of highly engaging and interesting questions, to tell TGS who they are. Each student applicant will be interviewed by the Head of School, either in person or on Skype with video. These applicants may then meet other members of the TGS team, after which recommendations will be made. In January 2010, interested applicants will have the opportunity to meet the Head of School when he visits Stockholm.

What is the tuition?

Full tuition is US$ 88,000 plus travel costs.
Note: Partial or full scholarship is available at TGS.

Which subjects do you read?

Basically the IB Diploma Programme.

Learn more at www.thinkglobalschool.com